In addition for Secondary and Middle deemed Secondary Schools relating to pupils in Year 8 and above

Once you are aged 13 or over, we are required by law to pass on certain information to the provider of youth support services in your area. This is the local authority support service for young people aged 13 to 19 in England. We must provide the names and addresses of the pupils and parents (including the pupil's date of birth) and any further information relevant to the support services' role.

However, until a pupil is aged 16 or older, the parent(s) can ask that no information beyond the pupil's name, address and date of birth (and parent's names and address) be passed on to the youth services provider. This right transfers to pupils on their 16th birthday. Please inform the school by completing the Youth Services Consent Form to indicate whether you give permission or not for the school to provide additional information to the Youth Support Service.

For more information about young peoples' services, please go to the Directgov Young People page at www.direct.gov.uk/en/YoungPeople/index.htm
