

Amphill Literary Festival Writing Competition 2019

CALLING ALL WRITERS! Amphill Literary Festival invites you to join us for an exciting writing competition.

In association with Amphill Park and funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund.

Your submission should be:

- poetry or prose
- less than 750 words
- inspired by the book 'Masquerade' by Kit Williams
- in appreciation of Amphill Park

Masquerade, an illustrated book that contains clues to a treasure which was hidden in Amphill Park, celebrates its 40th Anniversary in 2019. and Amphill Literary Festival would like to commemorate this.

For further images see

<http://bunyears.net/kitwilliams/masquerade/>

Winners will have an excerpt of their work placed on a temporary installation in Amphill Park, and after a year will be gifted the installation to treasure.

Prizes will be awarded by celebrated local author Ruth Hogan in the afternoon session on the 27th April 2019 at Parkside Hall.

The categories for entry include:

under 12

13-17

18 and over.

There will be one winner and one runner up per category.

Deadline for your entry is: 1st April 2019

Email your story, along with your date of birth, address and contact number to:

litfest@amphillfestival.co.uk

Tickets for the event are available from Eventbrite.co.uk and at No. 14