Good afternoon,

Update regarding Mrs Rogers

We feel we should update you all regarding the teaching arrangements in Willow.

As you all know, Mrs Rogers is going through a very difficult time at the moment with her health and when we last wrote to you things were very uncertain regarding what the arrangements would need to be this term.

Happily, Mr Rogers has, as you are aware been able to begin the year teaching 4 days a week in Willow and we are expecting this to be the arrangement for the majority of this term at least. We will update you if and when things change.

As we said above this is a very difficult time for Mrs Rogers and I also wanted to take this opportunity to thank her so much for her amazing professionalism and dedication to her role, despite the challenges she has been facing.

Yours sincerely,

Adam Campbell
Headteacher
